John Crovo

How has this person provided service to the LGBTQ community

Jon has been a big supporter of the RCC and its fundraising event for many years. He has worked in fundraising for HIV/AIDS since the early 80's and continues to do so even now. In 1999, Jon emceed an RCC event called the "Ride In" and was introduced to the AIDS Life Cycle. The following year he did the 545 mile bike ride from San Francisco to Los Angeles, and it changed his life.

Background:

Jon and his brother have now owned Club 1220 (or "the Hub") for 35 years. He is always looking for more ways to give back to the community that has supported him and his business... which is why he has decided to get back on his bike and do his part to fight this disease. Jon says, "My reason to take on this ride again has many reasons... but this is our 35th anniversary and I'm not getting any younger! I want to have that same amazing experience again!"

Three words to describe Jon: PASSIONATE, PHILANTHROPIC, and full of PRIDE
