The Rainbow Community Center of Contra Costa County (RCC), a non-profit organization, fosters a sense of community among lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, intersex and questioning (LGBTIQ) persons and enhances their lives by providing social opportunities, health and wellness services, political and educational programs, and is guided by a commitment to acceptance and equality. The RCC envisions a society that embraces acceptance, safety and equality for all, regardless of sexual orientation or gender identity/expression. RCC services include:

Social activities for youth, adults, singles, couples, and families, both at the center and off-site

Support groups (See Calendar of Events or call the center for current group schedules)

Educational programs for the LGBTIQ community and outreach to schools and other organizations

Annual Honors Celebration recognizing outstanding members of our community for their efforts

Information for LGBTIQ persons who are new to the area

Support and information for individuals who are "coming out" or exploring their sexual orientation

Referrals to LGBTIQ - owned and LGBTQ-friendly businesses and service providers

Speakers on LGBTIQ issues for schools and community groups

The *Prism RCC's newsletter with information on special events and a calendar of ongoing activities as well as receiving e-mail blasts

Social activities such as Movie Night, Games Night, barbecues, sports groups, theater outings, Casino Night, ski trips, Art Show, and more

Volunteering provides a special opportunity to give of oneself and give back to our community

Business Hours The Center is open Mon. - Fri, from 10 AM - 5 PM and reopens from 6 PM - 9 PM for various group meetings. On Saturdays the RCC is open from 3 PM - 7 PM.
